

Art at Five

Art at Five celebrates its eighth anniversary this month with an exhibition by three acclaimed Brighton artists. 'Summer Reflections' runs from the 15th-23rd October and showcases the recent works of Cecil Rice, Philippa Stanton and Louise Brooks. Each artist takes a differing yet equally engaging approach to unravelling and interpreting our memories of summer.

The private view evening was held on 14 October and guests, family and friends of the artists were treated to canapes and drinks from Plateau at 1 Bartholomews. Gallery owner Paola Calise comments; "Brighton is fast becoming one of the most renowned places for art and we are proud to be focusing our exhibition on three of the best local artists. I am very excited to be presenting the work of three hugely talented artists in our new exhibition".

Art at Five can be found at 5 Bartholomews, Brighton.
Words and photos: Patrick Kneath

Louise Brooks

Carla Ter Maat (Drakes), Mike Mitchell & Ambrose Harcourt (AHPR)

Terry Harding, Anna Swirkowska, Paul Harding, Finn Christensen, Carol Harding

Philippa Stanton, Cecil Rice, Louise Brooks, Paola & Laura (Art at Five)

Plateau