Ambrose's <sup>business</sup> Love Bites Top 3

Is it all about profit? Are our business people hard-nosed and ruthless. Or do they have a romantic side? There's only one man who can find out: our own Mr Lurve.

Ambrose Harcourt asks Brighton's businesspeople for their all time, top three love songs:

This month:
David Pegler,
Divisional Director of
Brewin Dolphin,

1. Michael Buble - Some Kind of Wonderful

He is simply one of my favourite artists. We went to see him in concert last year – a great entertainer.

2. Snow Patrol – Chasing Cars

You can fill up your day with lots of 'stuff' and sometimes get lost in all the activities and sometimes distractions that we are faced with. For me, this song focuses on one simple message of 'love', leaving all the distractions behind

3. Dina Carroll – Perfect Year

What we all strive for in these challenging times

David joined Brewin Dolphin in September 2009 as head of its new Brighton office after 6 years at UBS Wealth Management and 12 years at Cazenove. Brewin Dolphin is one of the UK's largest independently owned private client investment managers with approximately £26bn invested on behalf of more than 130,000 clients, charities and pension funds from 40 regional offices.

Outside of work David is a keen 'Ironman' triathlete and cyclist.
