

Latest diary

Around town with: the launches of Lola Lo and Brighton vs London, plus solicitors Howlett Clarke

Club tropicana

Aiming to capture the essence of care-free South Pacific joie de vivre, Lola Lo launched on 1 July in East Street. The intimate Tiki Bar and club transports you to a tropical oasis with an exotic array of cocktails, champagnes and rums mixed with a blend of club classics and contemporary beats.

Photos: Diana Frangi

Tristan Hall, Max Whitney (barman)

Rebecca Young, Rachel Pickering, Sue Chandler (promotion girls)

Rob Stables, Griggy Smale (radio broadcaster), Shane O'Lea

Masi Alessandro (Brighton vs London), Hamilton Smith

Miranda Rasmussen (organiser Geisha Arts), Jennifer Anderson Mann (Madame Geisha)

Battle of the artists

Contemporary art fans descended on East Street's Madame Geisha in their droves on 1 July for the opening of Geisha Arts' new exhibition, Brighton Vs London. This eclectic mash up of raw, cutting edge art makers features truly massive names such as Goldie, Jamie Reid and Matt Small.

Photos: Diana Frangi

Zac Walsh (artist and creative director), Matt Small (artist)

The Cheeky Girls

Solicitors get Cheeky

Howlett Clarke threw a party at Brighton Dome to celebrate becoming a founder partner of QualitySolicitors last month, with guests including the Cheeky Girls. Howlett Clarke is Brighton and Hove's oldest legal practice. The founder, William Attree, acted for the Prince Regent in connection with conveyancing for the Royal Pavilion. They have two offices in Brighton and Hove and can be contacted on 0845 0754170 or at www.qualitysolicitors.com/howlettclarke

Photos: Patrick Kneath

Colin Edmonds (partner, Howlett Clarke), Sian Edmonds, Leanne Edmonds, Simon Cales (Cales & Co.), Juliana Garwood (Cales & Co.)

Ambrose Harcourt (AHPR), Craig Hall (chief executive, QualitySolicitors), Tim Fenton (senior partner, Howlett Clarke), Warren Robertson (partner, Howlett Clarke)

celebrations weddings conferences

Set in 5000 acres of parkland
Tailor made events
Fully staffed bars
Late license to 2am
Superb catering
Extensive artist list
Themed house lighting
Experienced events team

she stanmer house

stanmer park, brighton, east sussex, bn1 9qa | 01273 680400 | enquiries@stanmerhouse.co.uk

Brighton's Premier Venue working in association with Chestnut Tree House

